

Sentence Problems Review 2

Directions

Put an “RO” in front of any run-on sentences that follow, a “CS” in front of any comma splices, and an “F” in front of any fragments. Then fix each error. (Refer to pages 565–566 and 568 in Texas Write Source for explanations and examples.)

- _____ 1. My dad is a long-time member of our town’s volunteer fire department, he also belongs to our local rescue squad.
- _____ 2. Always getting called to a fire or an accident right in the middle of supper or when his favorite football team is playing on television.
- _____ 3. One night he rescued two kittens from a burning barn and brought them home we named the kittens Sparky and Soot.
- _____ 4. Still have both kittens 10 years later.
- _____ 5. The kittens are all grown up now, they have become regular members of our family.
- _____ 6. I’ll never forget the night we got Sparky and Soot they were cold and smelled like smoke.
- _____ 7. Tiny heads poking out of the pockets of my dad’s big rubber coat.
- _____ 8. I thought they were toys, I heard them meow.
- _____ 9. For a child, there many things cuter than baby kittens?
- _____ 10. My sister and I loved the kittens we took them up in our tree house and everywhere we went.